THE LATE MRS. SHARP.

Tribute of the Oregonian to That Accomplished Pianiste.

The following from the Sunday Oregonian refers to the daughter of Prof.
Cook of this city, whose death was noted in yesterday's Advertiser:

The death of May Cook Sharp, as announced in yesterday's Oregonian, was a great shock to her many friends in this city, where she was so well known, particularly in musical circles. The passing away of a life so young and full of promise is indeed sad. May Cook Sharp was a hard worker in her profession, applying herself constantly to the piano.
During her stay abroad she had the best of teachers and when, on her return here, she appeared in public, her many friends were convinced that she had not wasted away time while absent. She had great technique and her playing was clean-cut. Many of our music-loving people who attended the concert of the Orchestral Union, in years gone by, will remember her performance of many important piano compositions, among which were the Weber's concert, Stueck, Beethoven's C minor and C major piano concertos and the difficult A minor piano concerto by Schuman. All these were rendered with full orchestra accompaniments with great success. Mrs. Sharp was of a very retiring disposition. She was greatly beloved by the circle of friends she moved in, while a resident of this city.

Milton E. Allen has been appointed Chicago, has made heavy purchases crease in the last decade of 7,000,000.

Governor Odell, of New York, recommends that the canals be deepened to nine feet, and the locks extended.

Mrs. Laura C. Roosevelt, cousin of "Teddy," narrowly escaped death in a runaway accident on Broadway, N. Y.

Paul Pons, the wrestler who met Ernest Roeber, has returned to France, being unable to arrange a second match.

The Shriners go to Moanalua today,

Church tomorrow as follows: Sermon, of the H. B. M. S. Wasp for an "at from Brewer's wharf.

day evening.

What could be better for your Sunday dinner than a shoulder of mutton

Baker street.

Ben' Bruns will shortly leave for the Coast, where he has been called on business of an urgent nature. He will return to Honolulu after a few months, as Hawaii has charms for the talented young man which he finds hard to resist.

Much interest has been manifested as to who will be the fortunate possessor of the lodges and boxes on Shriners' night at the Opera House.
Auction sale takes place today at Wall, Nichols Company, and Will E. Fisher will do the grand act.

A diamond will be laid out on the parade ground in time for the practice of the Young Men's Christian Association team next Tuesday afternoon.

menced next week, and the men will

One of the through passengers on the America Maru to the Orient was Medical Inspector P. Rodgers, who was assigned to duty with the Asiatic squadron. He visited the naval station yesterday in company with Commander A. Marx, who goes to the port of Manila.

The grand concert to be given by the Beretani Troupe Club will take place in the Opera House on April 12th. An excellent program is being arranged, and the very best local talent will appear. There will be no playing to speak of on the new courts until after the concert is over.

The Aloha branch, T. S., will hold its regular weekly meeting tonight in the R. of P. hall, Fort street, at 7:30. An address will be given by Franklin Austin on "Twilight; Its Hypnotic Influence on Vice" and a cordial invitation is extended to all interested in morality and truth, to come. Admission, free.

A meeting of the Healan Minstrels was held at the clubhouse last evening. Nearly all of the members of the club were present, and a very profitable evening was spent. The program for the coming entertainment was outlined, and the various parts were assigned. The entertainment will be a great success, it is said.

A FREE SAMPLE OF TAROENA FOOD. This package will make two pounds of poi, the great Hawaiian food.

TAROENA is prepared from taro, is thoroughly cooked and ready for immediate use, is highly concentrated and will keep in any climate. Take a package home and give your friends a chance of seeing and tasting poi, the great Hawaiian dish. While TAROENA is used for making poi, it is far more important as a food for invalids, dyspeptics and infants. Our food is particularly useful to seafaring travelers, for it will "stay down" when all other foods are rejected.

Mr. M. E. Meyer of Los Angeles, Cal., says:

My mother had been suffering with indigestion for many years, which continually grew worse. By good luck we got hold of TARO-ENA, and mother tried it with cream in the last decade of 7,000,000.
